Section 1: Financial Contribution

This bursary application must be completed and signed by the parent(s)/guardian(s) of the DEEP applicant.

Each year the amount of funding available varies based on the number of bursary applications submitted and the level of funding support our bursary program receives. Bursaries are awarded to students of academic merit who also demonstrate financial need. We encourage you to speak with your child's school and service groups in your community for additional sources of financial assistance.

The deadline to apply for a bursary is April 17, 2014. You will be notified of your bursary application status via email by May 7, 2014.

The maximum bursary allowed per student is the cost of 75% of tuition and/or residence*.
